FIRST BLOOD FOR PROHIBITIONISTS

The Senate Voted Down Resolution Offered by Anti and Adopted Proposition of Pro.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]
Austin, Texas, Jan. 11.—Dilatory tactics were resorted to today in the senate with considerable success. In view of the fact that the house was not expected to get thoroughly organized until late this afternoon, the anti-prohibitionists believed the time propitious to start the ball rolling.

Senator Kaufman, of Galveston, offered a resolution that the senate adjourn until tomorrow, when Senator Coker, a prohibition leader, offered as a substitute to recess until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The roll was called on the Kaufman motion and it was lost by a vote of 15 to 10. Coker's motion was then carried.

Lieutenant Governor Davidson said the house was not likely to complete its organization today.

CAMPBELLS' SWAN SONG

In His Last Message the Governor Defends Laws Enacted During His Administration—Is Bitter Against Corporate Interests.

STRONG AGAINST REPEAL OF I. & G. N. LAW

Approves Expenditures of Attorney General's Department—Recommend Nine Jurors' and Two Cent Passenger Fares.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]
Austin, Texas, Jan. 11.—Governor Campbell today gave his last message to the legislature and in it strongly defended the laws enacted during his four years' administration and bitterly attacked the corporate interests.

The message reviews his acts in detail during his administration, and says when he became governor the state faced a deficit of $300,000 and now this is wiped out. He says Texas enjoys the lowest tax rate of any state in the country. Notwithstanding the 1907 panic, the droughts and misrepresentations of the interests, the state has prospered, and that despite "corporate greed" many good laws have been passed.

In his closing the laws passed he especially praised the law making the keeping of gambling houses a felony, the laws prohibiting race track gambling, abolishing bucketshops, preventing sales of liquor in local option districts, prohibiting prize fights, prohibiting free railroad passes, the bank guaranty law, the Robertson insurance law, the full rendition law, and the laws increasing the taxes of corporations, franchise tax and the gross receipts tax.

Governor Campbell gives himself much credit for the passage of these laws, and says he only fulfilled the demand of the people.

Governor Campbell urges the legislature now in session not to repeal or amend the International & Great Northern claims law, and says an effort to repeal the law is an effort to rob the people. He also recommends the creation of a board of commissioners to control the prisons, said commissioners to hold office six years.

The governor warmly praises the work of the attorney general's department, and approves the expenses incurred by the department. In this Governor Campbell disagrees with Governor-elect Colquitt, who said the department is spending $25,000 uselessly annually in suits. Governor Campbell urges further appropriations for conducting these suits.

The governor also asks the legislature to simplify legal procedure and wants a verdict legal when nine jurors agree. He also asks for a law reducing passenger rates to 2 cents per mile, and recommends that July 22 be named for voting on the prohibition amendment to the constitution, and that a law be passed compelling saloons to close at 7 p. m. and remain closed till 7 a. m.

BROWNLEE WILL FATHER "TEN MILE" BILL

Madison County Statesman Will Have Strong Backing to Get Law That Would Make Bryan Dry.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]
Austin, Texas, Jan. 11.—Representative Brownlee today prepared a "ten-mile" bill and will present it the first opportunity. Representatives Barrett, Baker, Martin and Humphrey will cooperate in pushing the measure. The bill will make it unlawful to sell liquor within ten miles of any state educational institution.

An effort is being made to get the governor's message before both houses about 4 o'clock.

THE DIXIE THEATER.

The Dixie theater gave another splendid exhibition of motion pictures last night. The patronage was much larger than on the opening night and everyone present was highly pleased with the entertainment. The pictures are well selected, are full of interest and are perfectly presented.

The proprietors are experienced in the business. They have an expert operator and when a film is started it is run right on to the end. There are none of the annoying delays so often seen in motion pictures, and no "wait a moment until the operator adjusts the film."

The Dixie furnishes an hour of good clean amusement and is a most excellent place to while away a part of the long winter evenings.

PROS CAUCUS BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

Will Try to Pass All Governor Campbell's Drastic Liquor Measures.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]
Austin, Texas, Jan. 11.—The prohibitionists in the house held an important caucus today behind closed doors and formed an organization to fight for liquor legislation. Twenty-eight members attended. The prohibitionists will try to secure liquor legislation before Governor Campbell leaves office, and these are measures he recommended in his message.

The prohibitionists will hold another caucus tonight and it is believed they will spring something sensational. It is pointed out that the constitution says the governor shall be inaugurated on the second Tuesday in January, or as soon thereafter as practicable. It is reported that the prohibitionists may consider it not practicable to inaugurate Colquitt until Governor Campbell can sign the new laws.
